Adam Spencer is originally from Nuneaton, England. After a year of medical school he decided to audition for the British TV show, "Strictly Dance Fever", winning a spot on the show. He was awarded a scholarship to the London Studio Center. This was the beginning of a performance career that took him around the world. Now he teaches at Studio 878 in Chatham, and is known as Adam in Chatham. Adam's students cover a wide range of ages and have won multiple national awards. Adam was awarded "Teacher of the Year" and Studio 878 was named "Best Studio" at the Commonwealth Classic in Burlington MA. Adam is particularly proud of his very successful Chance to Dance youth dance program.
