THE COMPETITORS - MORNING SESSION

THE ROYAL PALM CHAPTER WINTER FROLIC ALL AMATEUR COMPETITION

The Winter Frolic Competition this year held at the festively bedecked Goldcoast Ballroom, the creation of the very artistic Jeff Chandler, attracted competitors who have noticeably acquired greatly improved dancing skills, hence, were much better dancers this year. Three new very talented young couples who dazzled the spectators gave an impetus to the contestants and energized the day's performances.

Excitement and anticipation permeated the day for the 32 or more couples participating in competition, as well as, for the crowd that gathered to watch and to root for them.

The ladies were stylishly gorgeous in their sparkling beaded gowns of pink, red, green, or blue, turquoise - and matching accoutrements! It was refreshing to see the gentlemen in their elegant formal or semi-formal attires and manner.

The passions discernible on the faces of the dancers as they glide smoothly in a Fox Trot, Waltz and Viennese Waltz, or as they move to the mysterious staccato of the Tango, or the fast stepping Quick Step across the spacious dance floor, rouse one to cheer them on and share in their emotional involvement. The subtle movements of the dancers' bodies in the Bolero, Rumba, and Swing West Coast, to the sensual hypnotic beat of the Cha Cha, to the rhythmic beat of the Mambo, conveyed feelings and emotions that a spectator can share and appreciate. And how fascinating it is to watch them perform the lively Jive, the Paso Doble and the Swing East Coast. Vinny Munno's well chosen music selections in the official dance tempo enticed the dancers even more in competition and in general dancing. →

Dancing with
the feet is one thing,
but dancing
with the Heart is another.

→ Meeting and mingling with so many talented dance personalities made the day an enjoyably thrilling and special experience.

We extend our appreciation to the tireless efforts of the judges, chaired by the renowned Lee Fox, with Webert Benoit, Olga Bogdanov, Paolo DiLorenzo, Alex Foroponov, Brian Smith and Ron Troy - all proficient and well known in their professions as accomplished dancers and Ballroom Dance instructors.

The competitors and spectators appreciated and gleefully shared the lighthearted improvisation of Emcee Karen Pritchard who provided welcome diversions from the long day's serious aspect of the competition.

Our thanks to Scrutineer Alan Norworthy for his painstaking technical support in the demanding compilation of the competitors' scores during the competition.

We acknowledge the indefatigable efforts and determined perseverance of Patti MacDonald in putting together this enormous undertaking on its 11th year with the able assistance of Les MacDonald and their support group who were rightfully recognized in the Competition Program.

Thank you, Patti - for successfully seeing to the completion of a challenging massive event outstandingly and admirably!

"The Dancer believes that his art has something to say which cannot be expressed in words or In any other way than by dancing there are times when the simple dignity of movement can fulfill the function of a volume of words. There are movements which impinge upon the nerves with a strength that is incomparable, for movement has power to stir the senses and emotions, unique in itself. This is the dancer's justification for being, and his reason for searching further for deeper aspects of his art."

Saint Valentine's Day or the Feast of Saint Valentine February 14

It is celebrated in many countries around the world, although it remains a working day in most of them.

St. Valentine's Day began as a liturgical celebration of one or more early Christian saints named Valentinus. The most popular martyrology associated with Saint Valentine was that he was imprisoned for performing weddings for soldiers who were forbidden to marry and for ministering to Christians, who were persecuted under the Roman Empire. During his imprisonment, he is said to have healed the daughter of his jailer, Asterius. Legend states that before his execution he wrote her a letter "from your Valentine" as a farewell. Today, Saint Valentine's Day is an official feast day in the Anglican Communion, as well as in the Lutheran Church.

The day was first associated with romantic love in the circle of Geoffrey Chaucer in the High Middle Ages, when the tradition of courtly love flourished. In 18th-century England, it evolved into an occasion in which lovers expressed their love for each other by presenting flowers, offering confectionery, and sending greeting cards (known as "valentines").

Valentine's Day symbols that are used today include the Heart, "heart-shaped outline," doves, and the figure of the winged Cupid. Since the 19th century, handwritten valentines have given way to mass-produced greeting cards.

Susan B. Anthony Day

Saturday Feb 15, 2014

By Holly Matthews

February 15, 1820 is Susan B; Anthony's birthday, a commemorative day to celebrate the accomplishments of a great leader in the movement for women's right to vote.

In the state of Wisconsin, Susan B. Anthony Day is an established state holiday, which was enacted into law April 15, 1976, from the 1975 Laws of Wisconsin. Likewise, this holiday is also commemorated in Florida as a legal state holiday. In West Virginia, this day is celebrated on Election Day on even years but is not celebrated at a national level.

According to an article from the Seattle Times in 1985, the feminist movement is pushing hardest for this holiday to be celebrated nationally. (Other holidays that are not commemorated on an official federal level in the U.S. but widely observed are St. Patrick's Day and Arbor Day.)

Susan Brownell Anthony was born February 15, to Daniel and Lucy Anthony in Adams, Massachusetts.

Washington's Birthday/President's Day

Observed on the third Monday in February

February 17, 2014

The Washington's Birthday public holiday is more commonly referred to as Presidents Day in the United States and is dedicated to honoring George Washington, the first president of the United States.

It is considered to be the first public holiday declared specifically to celebrate the life and accomplishments of one individual.

As a federal holiday, Washington's Birthday gives non-essential federal employees the opportunity to take a day off in observance of the holiday. Schools are also closed and there is no postal service on this date. Most businesses stay open during the Presidents Day holiday.

Schools often dedicate class work to George Washington around the time of his birthday, and townships may provide events that teach residents about the importance of Washington's contributions to the formation of the United States.

The holiday has been observed on a Monday since 1971. This ensures that federal employees and schoolchildren will be allowed to have a day off of work and school if Washington's actual birth date falls on a weekend.

The United States Senate has a long-standing tradition to read George Washington's Farewell Address every year in observance of his birthday. This tradition first started in 1862 and is still being practiced.

George Washington's actual birthday was February 22, 1732. Because the observed date of Washington's Birthday is now set for the third Monday in February, it is impossible for the holiday to ever fall on the Washington's actual birthday.

USA Dance Royal Palm Chapter Dance at the Goldcoast - January 8, 2014

A well attended pre-dance Tango class meticulously taught by Liene DiLorenzo greeted the arrivers to the Ballroom this evening. Linda Miller and Syrus Partian seemed to be enjoying the intricate patterns of an American Tango.

Miara Mooi-Wilten in a black lacy dress watched the lesson, and greeted Maria Campos as she arrived in a cute, empire waist print dress. Misha Bartnovsky, looking much like a "Prince Charming", in his white billowy sleeve shirt with high stand collar, exchanged enthusiastic greetings with everyone seated at one of the three Royal Palm Chapter tables who seemed to welcome his arrival.

Geri Easter, with her red hair nicely complementing her long flowing dark green gown, arrived lugging her camera case to do a test run prior to the Royal Palm Winter Frolic Competition on January 25th when she will be photographing the competitors during the contest.

Seen on the dance floor enjoying the dance together were Margit Weir and Daniel Shanetzky, Arline Shulman and Herb McCarter. Also enjoying the dance with various dance partners were Elaine Fitzgerald, Jan Hurley, Marie Kastenbauer, in a stylish black lace dress with a scarf skirt, Joan Lieberman who wore a simple short black dress, Martin McCarthy, Albert Magliacane, Jack Reiner, and Lee Ranger.

Patti and Les MacDonald were, as always, hard at work together at the counter to welcome the arrivals.

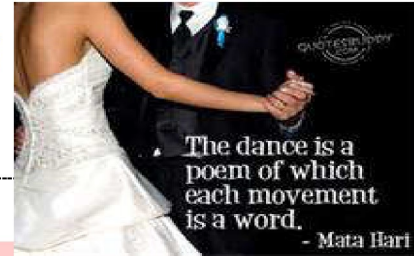

A 50/50 drawing was held at this time for a Dance Scholarship which was awarded to a competitor at the Winter Frolic Competition. We collected a total of $120.00, $60. of which was won by Ken Luthy.

Their Hearts Were Dancing

Written by Tony Haselden

One two three , step two three,
Whenever they're waltzing, He counts out loud
She's tried to teach him
But the rhythm doesn't reach him,
So they bounce through the crowd
But oh won't you look at them smiling
Not worried that they're out of time.
He steps on her toes as she giggles and goes on 'Cause love is forgiving and kind.
Their hearts are dancing To the love song
that's played from the moment they met.
Their hearts are dancing In time

with a tune love won't ever forget.
Their gold anniversary, He toasted the family
And said, time flies when it's fun.
And here's to my sweet wife,
Who's made ours a great life, I'm the luckiest one.
And though there was no music playing
He reached out and she took his hand,
He counted to three as they waltzed he could see,
There's still magic in those golden hands.
Their hearts are dancing To the love song
that's played from the moment they met.
Their hearts are dancing In time with a tune love won't ever forget
Their hearts are dancing, To the love song
that's played from the moment they met.
Their hearts are dancing,
In time with a tune love won't ever forget.
