Secret Hawaiian Sign of Flowers in Ladies' Hair:

If you wear a flower behind your left ear, it means you are married, taken, have a significant other, or maybe you just don't want anyone bothering you! If you wear a flower behind your right ear, it means you are single, available, and approachable. How to remember which ear means what? You would wear your wedding ring on your left hand, so a flower behind your left ear means you are off the market! If you are single, wear a flower behind your right ear and a smile on your face.

Couples, singles, dancers of all levels, welcome!
