We will once again host our annual Mall B. September 18, from 1 - 5 p.m. at the Volusi year, we wish to appeal once again to our a general public, with dancers from the gener Chapter Members. To that end, we are aski one (or two dances, if time permits) of you 2 ½ minutes on this date. If you are willing you are, please contact Marta no later than '

September 1, so that we may plan the program. Thank you in adv timeliness.

We are still in the process of finalizing our plans. However, the C Chapter will be celebrating our 23rd anniversary at our chapter d Saturday, September 24. We intend this to be a very special even date! Details to follow.

For years, I would say that our chapter was a Social chapter (vs a chapter). Well, I finally realized recently that our chapter include of competitive dancers. Competing causes us to work harder on c that is a good thing.

With that in mind, do you have competition/performance clothes that you would like to sell? Pass a photo, description and price to for inclusion in our e-newsletter. No cost to current members of c end of this newsletter for a sample. In the meantime...

Keep on competing and keep on dancing!

music and, although he is an expert at creating beautiful instrumental music, he felt there missing in his life.

One morning about four he envisioned himself as a dancer, take his love of music to the ne muse of music in his head said, Not having danced since he was readied himself for a challenge.

It took a little nudging from a friend; however, seeing the e and sparkle in the eyes of this dance friend, Ken decided t new musical journey began with a visit to the USA Dance at Gold Star Ballroom that is organized by the Greater D #6026. He enjoyed it so much that he jumped at the invita Chapter.

One of the benefits of joining our Chapter is a month of free chapter-sponsored beginner group dance lessons on Mor Ken had received his sign! He began taking lessons immediately!

Now, most beginning dance hopefuls begin their lessons Waltz or Foxtrot or Rumba, but not Ken! His first dance Viennese Waltz! Well, Readers, I don't know how many o Viennese Waltz, but let me tell you it requires musicality, coordination and stamina! Simply stated by Ken himself later that he had chosen one of the most difficult introduction to this new passion.

After that first lesson, the instructor worried that Ken may become discouraged due to the challenges of Viennese he might not continue. However, the truth of the matt had done very well for his first dance lesson ever! Yes, he as questions, even stumbled a bit, but with his musical backgr passion to learn, Ken was becoming a dancer!

Since his incredible and inspiring beginning, he has new dances. His favorites are the Bolero for its smoothr and the Country Two-Step for its rhythm and beat. His c steady dance partner, Joan Riggio, started dancing about a did; and she loves it so much that she wouldn't consider mi dance event or allowing Ken to do so.

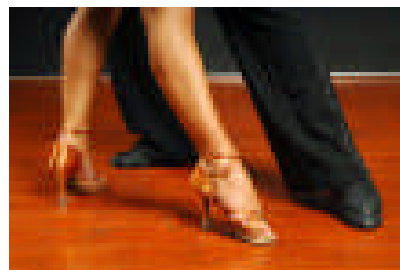

Ken is truly "graced by music." His new love of c admirable musical career are something we all can admir in our own lives. If you ask me, I think it is life fulfilling. he will encourage you to step out there and take the plunge tell you to put your fears aside because the people of the Greater Daytona Chapter of USA Dance are welcome to assist you at any time.

So, how taken is Ken with his new music? On August 24, he has arranged to share his dance and opportunity to learn with his members, where the Greater Daytona Chapter will hold an Outreach event, a welcome introductory dance lesson and demonstration. Ken is sure that all will have lots of fun, learn a great deal and embark on a new adventure into the dance world.

Keep dancing, Ken! You inspire us all.
