HAPPY FEET

Dear Members and Future Members,

Welcome to the New Year! Our chapter will be celebrating our 20th Anniversary on September 14, 2013, and we have already begun planning to assure that this is a very special occasion. We intend to transform the gym at Silver Sands for this special dance and we are delighted to inform you that Rick Elliott of the Longwood Ballroom will be providing us with a very special dance show that evening. Rick is British and has been dancing since the age of five, including competing at Blackpool. He was recruited to this country by Arthur Murray Studios at the age of 17 and within six years was recognized as the Top Teacher for Arthur Murray (all franchises). He is a former Florida State Triple Crown Open Professional Smooth Champion and finalist at the United States Nationals and Ohio Star Ball competing in the American Smooth Rising Star Division. He has assisted Kym Johnson with choreography for Joey Fatone and Warren Sapp in the "Dancing with the Stars" television series. He is co-organizer of The Orlando Dance Classic held in July and owns the Longwood Ballroom Dance Studio. Rick is a member of the North American Dance Teachers Association and is a Certified Championship Adjudicator in all four styles of dance. More details will be forthcoming as the date approaches. In the meantime, we encourage members of our chapter, members of other chapters and future members (non-members) to save the date!

We had a great time on the Fourth National USA Dance Cruise thanks to the hard work and planning of our very own Jean Krupa, National Social Dance Vice President, and her many volunteers who assured that a good time was had by all. See below for more information on this fun cruise and be sure to read the related story in Center Stage.

Please be sure to check our website at greaterdaytonachapter.org for many new dance instruction DVDs in our lending library available to current members of our chapter. See Henry at our dances after announcements, if interested.

Happy 2013 and keep on dancing! Marla

A Bucket Full of Rose!

This month's Center Stage is about a Bucket List Wish and the wonderment of its fulfillment.

Let me begin by introducing Rose Juneau. Rose is 82 wonderful years old going on 50. I'll explain that statement later in this article. She is a single Mom who raised three children while working her way from an office clerk to administrative assistant to the president of the company 45 years before retiring at the young age of 75. December 2012

National Dance Cruise to Aruba and Curacao

Friday night we gathered in the lobby for our Bon Voyage Dance at the Goldcoast Ballroom in Ft. Lauderdale. On Saturday, everyone traveled by buses to board the Caribbean Princess.

After registration and lifeboat drill, we met in Club Fusion for a Cocktail Party where the instructors and volunteers were introduced.

We visited the ports of Aruba and Curacao as well as the private island owned by Princess where beautiful white sandy beaches, sightseeing and snorkeling were the order of the day. We enjoyed nightly dancing and dance workshops with the country's finest instructors, Dan and Silke Calloway and Mary Evans.

We had some fun theme nights and a final cocktail party to say our thanks and goodbyes. See some photos below. We would love to have you join us on the next cruise.
