President's Message

Dear Members and Future Members,

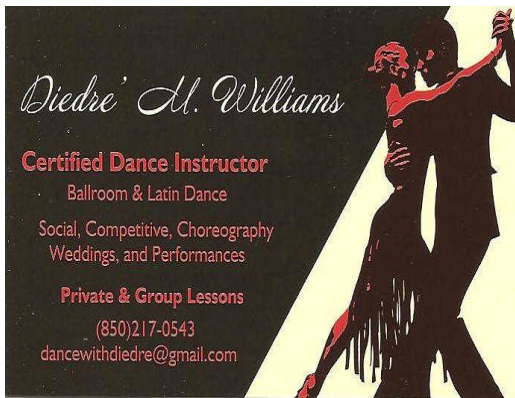

Thank you once again to Greg Marcum, Chairman of our Nomination and Election Committee, and Committee Members, Donna and Tony Keller, for their work on behalf of our election later this year. As it turns out, we will not require an election with ballots as we have no more interested candidates than the number of positions on the board. We will have a vote for the slate of officers at our December 10 chapter dance.

Have you met them in your group class?

by Tom Sanders

Let me begin by assuring you that instructors, especially those associated with The Greater Daytona Beach Chapter #6026 of USA Dance, are proud of, and cherish, each of their students. However doubt that you will easily identify each of these person group dance class. So, please read this in the light an manner that I wrote this article.

1. Ooh! Ooh! Ooh! I've got a question! Yes, this conscientious student who must calculate every move trying to move to the music. We love these students ask the questions we all hold inside. Thank you! (I think)
2. Don't look at or call on me! This student gets to get the steps right or even remember them when he upon. If this is you, don't worry, we have all been there!
3. I can't do that! Yes! Once again, we have all words. Stay vigilant, your instructor knows that a slow foot position, footwork, and lead and follow are required you from apprehensive to confident.
4. Oops! I thought we started at ??? o'clock student who, despite multiple notifications, arrives late to catch up. This usually happens only once since no one labeled that person!
5. I should be much better by now! This is the student who wants to be a pro dancer after lesson one!
6. The want-to-be instructor's helper. This helper
