NEWS FROM HEARTLAND BALLROOM DANCERS, CHAPTER #2022 OF USA DANCE INC

From the Heart

By John Graves Vice, President

Hello to all. Competition time is here at last! Have you ever wanted to see a ballroom dance competition LIVE but thought it was too costly? This is your chance--it's here in Indianapolis at the Wyndham West Hotel on August 10 & 11. I encourage all to come and cheer on the competitors and enjoy the beautiful dancing of couples from all over the country. Spectator tickets are available at the door and are very reasonably priced from $10 to $40, depending on the session you attend. There will also be a technique workshop on Saturday at 1 pm taught by 3-time US Finalist Bonita Brockert of Cincinnati for only $15. Tickets are available at the door,

In conjunction with the competition there will be a social dance on Friday evening from 7 to 10 pm as a kick off for the weekend's activities. This dance will replace our usual monthly dance; don't miss it. We will be dancing on the competition dance floor so there will be plenty of room to move. This dance is open to all at the low, low price of just $5!!! You can dance on a seamless floor with some of the very best dance music played by one of the top competition DJs Peter Collins. (see flyer for info) Come dance, make some new friends and support our competitors. I hope to see all of our social dance members on the dance floor Friday night!

July 27 was Louisville's 20th anniversary dance and Rog & Amy performed. Several couples from Indy went to cheer them on. See the article elsewhere in this issue.

We have two dates reserved for our Annual Dance Exhibitions at the Arts Garden: Saturday, September 28 at 12:00 noon and on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 30 at 1:00 PM. We need you to dance at this event. It's a lot of fun.

Stay tuned; we are still trying to plan a Dance Workshop in November.

Try out our new website indyusadance.org. You will also see our newsletter and information on when and where are dances will be and much more.

July Dance Report

by Ron Wright

When I arrived at the dance everything was in full swing so to speak. Rob Jenkins' Quickstep lesson had finished and quite a few couples were on the floor practicing the new steps. Roger kept the energy going with some great selections of music. I believe the crowd enjoyed the change of pace when Roger

Louisville Chapter's 20th Anniversary Celebration

by Helen Wright

Linda & Joe Lanning and Ron & I departed Indy on Saturday, July 27, to attend the formal dinner-dance held later that evening in Louisville, KY. We arrived at our hotel and relaxed for awhile before getting ready. Since this was a formal affair, we wanted to look our best. Dressed in our finery, Ron & Joe in their tuxedos and Linda & I in long dresses, we set off to find St. Andrews Church. Arriving with no problems we entered the facility and were greeted at the door by Betty Stevens and her husband who showed us to our table.

The event started with a few words from chapter president, Steve Houpt, who welcomed everyone and introduced the A.T. Adventurers Swiss Alps Troup #2016 of the Girl Scouts of America. They proceeded to present the colors (flag) and the audience joined in with the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. These girls remained, served and cleaned up for the evening. A proclamation from Mayor Greg Fisher was read by his wife Dr. Alexandra Gerassimides, in honor of the chapter's 20th Anniversary.

Dinner was announced and we were treated to roast beef, chicken cordon bleu, salad, vegetables and rolls. There was a large cake that had been decorated just for the occasion. We all enjoyed it for dessert. After dinner the tables were moved aside and the dance got underway. The band was Dave Mehl's Swing Street Band; they were very entertaining playing all the old standards and keeping everyone dancing all night long. At first break, we were graced by a young couple, Hannah Purdy & Oliver Kratholm (who our chapter helped send to Blackpool). This was my first time seeing them dance and they were fabulous. They did a Standard Medley and when finished left us all suitably impressed. There was a second exhibition by Alex Ioukhnel and some of his female students. At the second break, Jonah Grimes & Melissa Pylant performed a very entertaining West Coast Swing. But, the highlight of the evening came next when our own Roger & Amy Greenawalt treated us all to a spirited American Tango. They were fantastic! The evening came to a close too soon and we headed back home the next day.

If you've ever considered attending one of Louisville Chapter's monthly dances or special occasion dances, I know you would be made welcome by not only their president Steve Houpt but by all the members just as we were made welcome and appreciated not only this time but every time we have joined them.

Our congratulations go to Louisville Chapter #2021 on the achievement of 20 years and also for the success of their Anniversary dinner and dance.
