If you enjoyed the Roaring 20s performance of Olga Cansino's Adult Formation team during Heartland's November dance party and would like to join them, here is your chance:

The 21st, there will be a 5 week Cha Cha beginner group class. So if you never danced Cha Cha before or would like to brush up your Cha Cha steps please join the class in November (you can join Beginner group class even if you don't plan to continue with the formation). Then starting with the first week of January, the class will start working on the choreography, at which point everyone who signed up for the class will be required to participate. For more information and registration, contact instructor, Olga Cansino: (317) 774-6000.

- Friday, Nov 11 – the 3rd Annual Starry Night Special Needs Prom at Traders Point Christian Church. The prom is designed for teens and adults with special needs, ages 18 and up. The evening is free of charge and features all the glamour of a typical prom. The honored guests are provided with dresses, suits, a makeover in the salon, a red carpet entrance, dinner, dancing, games, karaoke, and photography. This year, the prom served over 400 special needs guests, with the corresponding number of hosts who remained with their guests throughout the entire evening. Several Heartland dancers volunteered as hosts, including Jane Perry, Ben Davis, Alexis McCall, Stacie Shapiro and our SO instructor Monica Lung.

The Starry Night Special Needs Prom is extremely well organized, and relies on its 400+ hosts and 500 other volunteers, including paparazzi and photo assistants, bakers and kitchen volunteers, guest registration, decorations, parking attendants, set up and tear down crew, dinner hosts and servers, salon greeters, makeup artists and beauticians, nail technicians and hair stylists, game attendants, dance floor motivators, dancing greeters, karaoke coordinators, the medical team, and elevator and restroom attendants. The event even featured the quiet room and the caregivers retreat, with listeners, masseuse and servers at the ready. Everyone had a great time. Thank you for volunteering!

- Wed, Nov 16 - dance lesson and exhibition at Louis B Russell Jr. school (IPS school #48).

Xavier Medina and Dorit Tomandl taught a group Salsa class to the 6th graders, followed by a short Q&A session and a Salsa exhibition for the kids. There were 40 kids in the class.

We thank all of our volunteers who assisted with the lesson: David and Sue Berard, Barb Cameron, and Marilyn Sutherlin. and Sonny Smith.

We would like to thank everyone who came to the Heartland's November Volunteer Appreciation Dance party and helped us honor our volunteers. We had a great time!

Dorit Tomandl was unanimously named by the Heartland Board as the Chapter Volunteer of the Year. Thank you, Dorit, for all your hard work and dedication to the USA Dance! We submitted Dorit's nomination for consideration as the District Volunteer of the Year. Scroll down to read highlights on Dorit's contributions to ballroom dancing.

Heartland's Nov 12 dance party was fast paced and delightful, with 63 dancers in attendance. We had a Viennese Waltz lesson taught by Olga Cansino from Carmel Ballroom. The lesson was fast-paced, and we even learned to dance the Fleckerels! During the party, we had a fantastic Roaring 20s exhibition by the Carmel Ballroom's Adult Formation team led by Olga Cansino.

Our paid November raffle for a complimentary evening admission to the Riverfront DanceSport Festival was won by Ed Blanchard. We thank the Riverfront organizers, Gert Roslender and Bill Sparks, for donating the gift certificate to us. Our free raffle for a complimentary admission to the Heartland's Christmas party was won by Heather Miller. Congratulations to the winners!

Thank you to all who came to the party - we appreciate your continuous support!

Thanks to all of our volunteers: Nancy, Anna, Larry, Amy, Rog, Dorit, Efim for helping us with the party's preparations and clean up, and with running the party smoothly. You are the best!

Meet Alexis McCall – Heartland’s new Special Project Coordinator

What is your passion? Where do you find your joy? I found myself asking those very questions a few years ago. I suppose we all find ourselves asking those very poignant questions at some point. I was spending my days working as a crisis therapist at a downtown hospital. That summer morning I was working with a depressed client and was talking to her about improving her life. I asked her the above questions. I got home that evening and looked in the mirror. I saw a woman without a passion and one that somewhere along the line had lost her joy.

I stood there reflecting on my life. I have an exciting job full of interesting stories and one that is quite action packed. I had raised two amazing boys who were off to college but I stood there lonely and bored.

I ponder what I could do to improve my situation. I had always wanted to learn to dance. I am sure flipping through the channels and seeing Dancing with the Stars added to that. I had wanted to dance for years but with a family and career I just never found the time. The next morning I got online and started my journey towards dancing. I found a beginner dance class that worked with my schedule. I decided right then, come Hell or high water, I was going to learn to dance. That next week I pulled in the parking lot of the dance studio. I was nervously walking in and I actually said to myself “For God’s sake I am a crisis worker at the county hospital. I deal with psychotic, suicidal and homicidal people daily. I can handle this.”

I stepped into my first group dance class. It was a beginning Rumba class being taught by Ben Davis and Connie Hatherill. They were two great teachers for a newbie like me. They made the class fun and simple. A few classes down the road I actually got the basic Rumba box step and started feeling like I had this dancing thing down. Boy was I wrong. I didn’t know there was more to dancing besides the basic footwork. Oh no, there is timing, connection, holds, arm styling and the list goes on and on. Believe it or not I don’t really think I knew there was music playing. I sure didn’t know there was such a thing as counting music.

After a few private lessons with the amazing Scott Shook I actually made my way to the real dance floor. One on the first people to ask me to dance was Roger Greenawalt. I am sure you all know the experience level he has, not exactly in my league. I thought I was going to die but he was so nice. I stepped on his feet and banged his knees several times. I apologized and what he said was so sweet and true. He said “unfortunately, no one here was born knowing how to dance. We all started out just like you.” Everyone in the dance community was so friendly and accepting of this new dancer.

I have been taking private lessons with John Berry for about a year and a half now. He is like a big brother. He is not afraid to say something if it is wrong but is also your biggest supporter. I don’t have enough space to tell you how great I think he is. Maybe this will paint a picture of my work with John Berry. I took that first Rumba group lesson May 2014. I did my first big Bolero show at the Indiana Roof in August 2015. If you did the math that is 14 months and that demonstrates the teaching ability of that man.

I currently have so much fun doing activities with USA Dance. I dance with the Special Olympians team that is instructed by Monica Lung. I compete in USA Dance amateur competitions with my amateur partner Ben Davis (remember Ben that first Rumba teacher). In addition to performing show dances we also participate in many community exhibitions for USA Dance. Ben and I have been dancing together for two and a half years now. He took on “dance baby” as a partner and I am so grateful. There is no way I would be where I am today without those countless hours of practice with him. I know how much work it was for him and it could not have been much fun in the beginning. I guess anyone in the dance community knows how hard it is to get a good dance partner but there is hope. If you can’t find a partner you can always grab the first newbie you see, grab some steel-toed shoes and build your own.

I have discovered that dancing is like a never ended road trip. I have learned the further you get down the road the more you have to go. I have learned I will never be satisfied with the destination because there is always more to accomplish. One thing for sure is that I definitely found the answer to my questions. I found that dancing is my passion and the dancers that I am lucky enough to have in my life are my 2nd family.

Chapter Volunteer of the Year – Dorit Tomandl

Written by Anna Kovalyova

Dorit Tomandl has joined Heartland Board in the capacity of Volunteer Coordinator at the beginning of 2016. Prior to joining the Board, Dorit has been and remains an invaluable Chapter volunteer who helps with the sales of raffle tickets at Heartland parties, and takes part in numerous Heartland community exhibitions (see pictures attached). Dorit quickly became a constant presence at the Heartland’s exhibitions and special events, and she is in charge of a host of preparations necessary to support each special event. Dorit is full of ideas and is very enthusiastic about her volunteerism

Ever since she has assumed the role of Volunteer Coordinator, Dorit has brought her boundless energy and her “will do” attitude to Heartland’s programs. She quickly connected with Heartland’s dance performers and became responsible for putting together dance programs at various venues including exhibitions at social groups, retirement centers, nursing homes, hospitals, indoor and outdoor venues, shopping malls and others. Dorit gained tremendous respect among Heartland dancers, as she is very mindful of people’s times; is eager to support them with a quick smile; and is generous in her praises of their efforts. Most of Heartland’s exhibitions have an educational component, where we dance with the members of the audience and / or have a dance lesson during the event. Dorit loves teaching others, and gladly takes the role of coordinator and instructor when the opportunity arises to teach the dance steps to the general public.

Dorit is very new to the world of ballroom. She began taking ballroom dance lessons at the Arthur Murray studio in Zionsville, IN about 2 years ago. As her circle of dance friends increased, she quickly discovered other local dance venues, and has eagerly joined the Heartland Chapter of USA Dance. We are looking forward to working with Dorit for many years to come.
