By Larry Gogel & Anna Kovalyova

Greetings, Dancers!

The summer is here, and with it, the renewed desire to exercise, visit with friends and to party.

Join the next Heartland's party on June 10 at Riolo Dance Studio. We will welcome Purdue instructors, Daniel Dilley and Yuehwern Yih, who will teach an American Rumba group lesson for us. For our paid raffle, we will have two complimentary tickets to the Big Ballroom Bash Fundraiser that will take place on Friday, July 7, 2017 at Murat Theater (aka Old National Centre). The Bash proceeds benefit Special Olympics ballroom dancers. We thank Roger Greenawalt and Bill Woodward for generously donating the Bash tickets to us.

- Wed, Jun 21, 11am-12noon – Heartland exhibitions at Franklin Active Adult Center
- Sun, Jun 25, 5-9pm– Indianapolis Seniors' Prom at the Indiana Roof
- Fr, Jul 7, 7:30-11:30pm– The Big Ballroom Bash, Murat Theater
- Sun, Aug 27, 5-9pm – Heartland and Continentals' joint Homecoming at the Indiana Roof
- TBD – Crestwood Village East, 1123 N Edmondson Ave, Indy. The facility houses more than 200 residents.

In addition to judging and choreographing, Yuehwern and her partner, Daniel, spend most of spare time as the head coaches of the Purdue Latin & Ballroom Dance Team. In 2010, when the Team was invited to compete on Season 10 of Dancing with the Stars, they coached the dancers to a 1st round victory, and placed second in the collegiate formation team competition at the finale.

Yuehwern & Daniel were finalists in many professional events and runners-up in USA Dancesport Championships in a span of 15 years. Throughout their dancing career, they have always been fascinated by the dynamics, intricate synergy and kinetics between partners in competitive ballroom dancing. They are passionate about learning; teaching, and helping students find their pathways to success on and off the dance floor. Yuehwern founded a college competition team at Purdue over 20 years ago and this team is not only ranked highly nationally, but also the incubator of many Dancesport competitors, professionals, and lifelong dancers. Daniel and Yuehwern are instrumental for organizing the Purdue Ballroom Classic, which has attracted more than 400 collegiate competitors each year from 20+ universities in the Midwest area in past two decades.

While Yuehwern approaches dance from a technical analytical angle, Daniel is more interested in the music, feeling, and showmanship of dancing. The movements should be inspired by the music and should look and feel natural and coordinated. He started ballroom on the USC Ballroom dance team before moving to Purdue and eventually becoming the co-head coach of their team. Before ballroom dance Daniel dabbled in hip hop and breakdance, and competed and performed as a professional stage magician. He spent a couple of seasons performing at Six Flags St. Louis, and Texas. By day, he is a software developer for HP Medicaid systems, which is why he is often requested to manage the network as a scrutineer for competitions.

Yuehwern studied ballet and performed with the Lafayette Ballet Company before learning ballroom dance. In parallel, she also completed her B.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Industrial Engineering, specializing in operation management and system engineering. She is currently a Full Professor in Industrial Engineering at Purdue University and the Associate Director of Regenstrief Center for Healthcare Engineering.

May dance activities:

We thank everyone who attended our May party. As always, special thanks go to our tireless volunteers. We owe the success of our parties to you. We had one performance at our May party. Alexis and Ben performed a beautiful Rumba routine for us. It was a pure joy to watch.

Our May raffle prizes for two complimentary tickets to the Big Ballroom Bash Fundraiser were won by Ben Davis and Richard Eiler. Our free raffle for a complimentary admission to any regular Heartland 2017 dance was also won by Richard Eiler. We thank Roger Greenawalt and Bill Woodward for donating Bash tickets to us. Congratulations to the winners!
