Volume 25 Issue 6

June 2018

From the Heart (President's & VP's Message)

By Larry Gogel & Anna Kovalyova

Greetings, Dancers!

June is here and summer is near. Join us at Heartland's June party on Saturday, June 9 at Riolo Dance studio. We are delighted to have Sean Gehlhausen from Carmel Ballroom as our instructor. Sean will teach a fun American cha lesson. Sean began teaching dance in 1990. He has taught full time at Fred Astaire, Arthur Murray, and Five Star studios. Sean won the Rising Star Rhythm Nationals while at Fred Astaire, and has won numerous teacher of the year awards at each studio where he has taught. Sean also served as a medic in the Marine Corps during Operation Desert Storm where he received meritorious service awards.

Our paid raffle will consist of 2 complimentary tickets to the Big Ballroom Bash that will take place on Friday, July 13 at the Murat Shrine Arabian Room. We thank the Bash co-organizers, Roger Greenawalt and Bill Woodward, for their generosity.

USA Dance board members are elected to two-year terms. The election cycle for Heartland is coming up this November. We have some board openings currently, and some members will not be returning. If you are interested in becoming a Heartland board member, let a current board member know or respond to the Heartland email: indyusadance@gmail.com.

May Dance Activities:

Heartland's May dance party was packed with activities. We had a fun Peabody lesson by John Berry and four exciting exhibitions. John and Anna performed a wonderful Viennese waltz followed by Dennis Summers and his instructor Monica Lung dancing a foxtrot while singing.

In the second set John and Alexis McCall performed an elegant waltz and Monica and Rick McClurg performed a passionate tango.

The raffle winners were Rudy Osenbaugh and Larry.
