

New Year's Eve Jazz Gala at Four Seasons Hotel Houston

Ring in the New Year in swinging style!

Tickets are now available for the first ever New Year's Eve Jazz Gala at Four Seasons Hotel Houston. This inaugural event is the city's hottest annual tradition-in-the-making, inviting Houstonians to bask in the festivity and fun while savouring unforgettable food and drink - and dancing the night away. We'll toast to that!

2 seating options: 5:30 pm with music by the illustrious Paul English Dance Quartet and 8:30 pm with music by Paul English's Little Big Band featuring jazz vocalist Elisha Jordan. Both seatings will be one-of-a-kind dining events with a variety of interactive courses ranging from live action stations and family-style courses to table-side and plated courses. All courses will be accompanied by distinctive beverage pairings worthy of this momentous night.

Champagne toast and balloon drop at midnight, plus spectacular surprises galore, the only thing left to do is book tickets now and prepare for a night to remember.
