HEART SURGERY PLANNED FOR DAVID SCHMIT

I want to thank all those who have supported me this past year in my healing process. I feel as though I've come a long way in my research and am finally prepared to make the correct decision--surgery. Special thanks to Yvonne Riske, Carol Post and Ellen Neuman for their loving support and belief in me.

Surgery is scheduled for Tuesday the 19th of July. I will remain at the clinic until Sunday the 24th, after which I will spend two weeks recovering at my sister's in Wisconsin.

For those of you who wish to send cards, the clinic mailing address is: Cleveland Clinic Foundation, 9500 Euclid Ave., Cleveland, OH 44195 -- David Schmit, Patient.

To all those who believe that, "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen, nor touched.....but are felt in the heart."

Hope to see you all soon.....David.

TO THE USABDA DEMO TEAM:

*Thank you for a wonderful dance presentation!
Everyone was thrilled to see you dance and loved the beautiful costumes. You all added an elegant touch to our "Star of the Northland" dinner show.*

USABDA PROFILE

FOCUS ON USABDA MEMBERS

- NANCY BEHRENS -

Nancy has always loved dancing and says she was drawn to it naturally, although she didn't take any lessons until nearly ten years ago.

She is primarily interested in taking lessons to improve her social dancing skills and these have been in group lessons.

Two people who have influenced her dancing are Craig Morris and Stephanie Hawley. About a year ago, she and Michael Schaffer started taking International lessons from David Hanson and also from Timothy Mason and Michele Chard.

She particularly enjoys West Coast Swing and polka, and wants to learn more folk type dances.

Nancy is a devoted first grade teacher in the Robbinsdale school district. She says she loves her work of teaching children equally as much as she does dancing. One of her goals is to instill the love of music and dance in children at a young age. Because of her busy schedule, she has found it difficult to dedicate as much time to that goal as she would like and hopes to do more in the future. Nancy is passionate about the need to introduce these arts to younger children on the school and neighborhood level.

In addition to dancing and teaching, Nancy enjoys gardening and being close to nature.

She often dances at many of the local ballrooms and attends USABDA events regularly.

USABDA TEA DANCE SUCCESSFUL

By Karen Kettler

On Sunday, June 5, in the elegant surroundings of the Lafayette Country Club, 130 dancers enjoyed the third annual Tea Dance. The Tea Dance is the spring semi-formal event sponsored by the USABDA-MN chapter.

To start the day, guests dined on a delicious brunch buffet seated in the veranda overlooking Lake Minnetonka. Following the brunch, dancers glided around the ballroom to music arranged for the occasion by Mark Tepley. Tea Dance attendees were also treated to the talented dancing of four local professional couples.

In the first showcase, Shinya and Marcy McHenry, of the Dancers Studio, delighted us with a waltz and Viennese waltz. Shinya also surprised us with a comedy swing number that drew a great many laughs. Scott and Amy Anderson, owners of the Fred Astaire Bloomington studio, danced a dramatic tango and playful fox trot.

In the second showcase of the afternoon, the couples featured were from the Coliseum Ballroom. Nathan Daniels and Deanne Michael heated up an already hot room with the sexy, rhythmic dancing of a jazz cha cha and a theatrical bolero. Jeff and Cindy Nehrbass topped off the professional showcases with a beautiful waltz and an energetic quickstep.

In addition, a special presentation was made to Shinya

PROFESSIONAL P

LOREN GREENBERG R

Loren got interested in social dancing when he was in the service for the same reasons most people do--it was a good way to meet people and he enjoyed it.

So when he got out of the military, he accepted an opportunity to train and teach for Arthur Murray. He did that for five and a half years. He stopped when he was hired by the Post Office and got married.

He didn't return to dancing until twenty years later. For the past twelve years, he has viewed his dancing instruction as a great hobby and focuses primarily on West Coast Swing. He has mostly group lessons for social dancers and occasionally teaches ballroom dance at Dance Spectrum, a school which features mostly ballet, jazz and tap.

Loren is retired from his postal job. He is well known in the Twin Cities dance community and to many USABDA members.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

WANTED--three great people to help with USABDA activities.

We need----

Dance coordinator: to work with Karen Kettler and help organize our monthly dances.

Membership promotions coordinator: to help organize activities relating to promoting membership in USABDA.

Assistant music coordinator: to assist Mark Tepley with music for the monthly dances and also the dance demonstrations.

Call the USABDA Hotline -- 489-0581-- if you are interested in volunteering to help in any of these positions.

McHenry for the generous amount of time, talent and energy he has provided to many USABDA members, as well as for his work with the USABDA Formation Team. Shinya received the first annual appreciation award to be given by the local chapter of USABDA to a person who promotes ballroom dance enthusiastically.

Special thanks to Eugene and Barbara Hickok for sponsoring USABDA-MN at the Lafayette Country Club.

American Style dominates the 12th MINNESOTA OPEN

By Bill Kroll

Not even the coincidental weekend National Convention of the NRA, which gobbled up immense numbers of hotel rooms, or the beautiful Spring weather in Minneapolis on May 20-22, were able to lessen the enjoyment of the hundreds attending the Twelfth MINNESOTA OPEN Ballroom Dance Competition. With semifinals required, American Style events overwhelmed the International. It's difficult at times to understand the swings in interest and popularity of some of the dances. A few years ago Rhythm dances were king. This year it was Smooth & Standard, with the American style dominant. The featured Pro events were better filled than the Amateur or Pro/Am.

Overall entries were up. Some 30 studios/independents represented by 45 teachers and 140 students/amateurs participated in the 2-1/2 day event. This year saw almost 25% of the entries coming from Canadians, making the "Open" truly an international event. The distinguished Judging panel was chaired by NDCA Treasurer and USISTD past president Dennis Rogers, with Jacqueline Rogers, Ann Harding, Kerry Wilson, David Kloss and Tom Patterson. All are past champions. Mr. Patterson served also as NDCA Observer. Jeff Carlsen was the Scrutineer.

Anticipation of a new alignment in the local Amateur ranks, since the breakup of several successful partnerships recently, was lessened quite a bit when the entries in the Amateur events proved to be rather limited. NELS PETERSEN and his new partner HEIDI SMITH were edged out by HUB NELSON & MONICA MOHN in the three-couple STANDARD final. HUB & MONICA also triumphed in the 6-couple American SMOOTH and the 4-couple Pre-Championship STANDARD finals. NELS was quite impressive with Jennifer Foster in the Pro/Am & Exhibition events as was ex-partner LISA ERICKSON with Paul Botes. The new partnership of BOBBY TARNOWSKI & DONNA EDELSTEIN looked good as runners-up in the Open STANDARD, as did JEFF CHINN & CELIA MULLEN in placing 3rd. It was a delight to see BILL & BEA BEDDOR, the Senior STANDARD winners, dancing as a couple rather than in the Pro/Am as in years past.

SCOTT & AMY ANDERSON of Bloomington FADS won the Pro American Smooth, and JESSE SMITH & LYNDA PRICE of the AMDS Minneapolis captured the Pro Rhythm title.

Moist eyes and lumps in the throat of most of the spectators, who then gave a standing ovation, rewarded the efforts of student BILL WILSON and teacher SHIRLEY CARON, as Bill got up out of his wheelchair and fulfilled a lifelong ambition to dance in a competition. We who value the unlimited use of our bodies and legs to dance, salute the courage and determination of Bill and Shirley. Our Star Awards reflected our admiration. Later in talking to Bill, he said he was looking forward to next year, but didn't know how he'd top this year.

The Saturday evening session was sold out as new champions were crowned and the throng attending rose to their feet to applaud the 10-dance performance by LINDA ETHIER and SERGE OUELETTE of Montreal. This exciting young couple had turned pro less than a year ago, but their polished presentation belied that fact. During their Latin show, Serge apologized to the crowd for his limited English, then "sang" in Spanish! (Actually he mimed the song). This was not just a recital of competition routines, but rather, a well thought out and practiced performance. Their show also made use of some very modern latin music in the best French Canadian mode. Well done, they are to be commended; certainly they should be seen a lot more.

USABDA Minnesota Chapter members once again were prominent among the volunteers who helped with the various unsung jobs necessary to the running of a competition. Thanks to them and to all those who made this another great event.
