Notes From the Board

by Melanie Helvig
USABDA Chapter Secretary

- USABDA business cards are in and were distributed.
- The next Beginner's Dance is Wednesday, September 25th at Medina Ballroom.
- Grand Ball. Jeff Chinn and Ed Munson updated the board on plans. Theme includes an honors showcase, with competing professionals and amateurs being given the opportunity to exhibit their skills. Recognition of current and past board members is also a part of the event. Volunteers are still needed for various aspects of the Ball.
- The next Singles Expo is October 12 at Kennedy High School in Bloomington. USABDA will provide a booth. Level of involvement is still being considered.
- The USABDA dance directory needs updating. Ways to accomplish that were discussed.
- College & Youth. David Schmit reported on plans to promote ballroom dancing as an activity worthy of participation by Twin Cities area youth; specifically high school- and college-age.
- Emcees are needed for the USABDA dance demos during National Ballroom Dance Week, as Yvonne Riske, our dance dance coordinator is unavailable (on her honeymoon!)
- Discussion surrounding the member list. We're still having trouble with people not notifying us when they move. Newsletters are sent third class and are not forwarded. Nearly 30 of the August issue were returned as undeliverable, and we're charged an extra 32 cents for each.
- Next meeting is Monday, September 9, 7pm, at Jeff Chinn's house, 7631 S. Bay Drive, Bloomington, 942-6947.

Thanks to Ed Munson for taking the Board Notes this month in Melanie's absence.

Minnesota Celebrates
National Ballroom Dance Week
"Give It A Whirl..."

"Give it a Whirl" is the theme of the 1996 National Ballroom Dance Week celebration to be held September 20-29. That's just what the dancing world will be doing as we "whirl" into ten days of dance events!

This is the seventh anniversary of the national celebration to educate the public about the wonderful health and social benefits of ballroom dancing, to attract new dancers and to encourage more dancing. All over the country, both amateur and professional dancers, studios, ballrooms, dance publications and other supporters of ballroom dancing will be sharing their love of dancing. Not just ballroom dancing, however, is being promoted -- all types are highlighted.

Governor Arne Carlson has issued a proclamation in honor of National Ballroom Dance Week in Minnesota. Co-sponsoring NBDW in the Twin Cities is the Minnesota Chapter of the United States Amateur Ballroom Dancers Association (USABDA-MN), the Minnesota Ballroom Operators Association and the Minnesota Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

A brochure of National Ballroom Dance Week events is enclosed with this newsletter. Additional brochures are available to hand out to people -- help spread the word about the fun of dancing! Point out the free events to encourage people to get involved in dancing. If you need more brochures, call the USABDA Hotline and leave a message: 612/489-0581.

USABDA is here to serve: We are looking for studios or independent instructors to offer "Door prizes" at each of our bimonthly Beginners Dances. This has been a very successful program that introduces beginning dancers to the world of Ballroom dancing. The prizes have consisted of free entry tickets to Ballroom competitions, free introductory lessons, memberships to USABDA, subscriptions to Dancing magazine or invitations to dance Parties. The door prizes are a wonderful incentive for would-be students to attend our Beginners Dance and provides a free means to promote your business or studio. If you would like to provide a "Door prize" call Lisa Hamilton at 893-0310.

TV Dance Notes

➤ Needing a break from the Olympics, I flipped on the TV one Sunday in August and caught a program on KSTP called, Swinging Down Memory Lane with Tony Sandler & Friends. It was actually done in March of 1995, as a pilot for a hoped-for regular program. Featured for a few dances were local pros, Tracy Heinze & Dave Murphy, and Meghan Guernsey & Brian Sostek, from the Dancers Studio.

➤ Some of you may know that I work for KARE-11 as a free-lance co-anchor/meteorologist. On Saturday, September 14th I'll be doing the KARE-11 Saturday show (7-10am) and the producer has given me the go-ahead to produce a 5-8 minute segment on ballroom dancing-- in advance of National Ballroom Dance Week. While details as of this writing aren't firm, expect to see several of our local talent in action. It's great publicity, as that show draws between 1/3 and 1/2 million viewers!

More Dance Notes

➤ USABDA is looking for a home. Most clubs or organizations have a place that they can call home, and we'd like to find a spot that's either shared or uniquely our own. Ideas, anyone? Talk to any of the officers or board members.

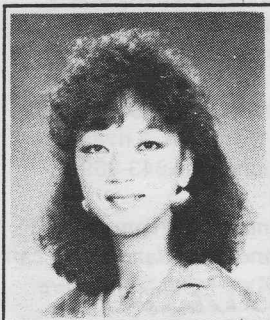

➤ We're also looking for an editor. My term expires at year's end and due to other commitments I won't be pursuing a second term. If you've got a flair for writing and organization and want to immerse yourself in USABDA, talk to me. It's been a great way to get to know a lot of people!

Membership Update

Okay, so you're a little confused about your USABDA membership. We'll try to clarify it for you. When you join USABDA, you're joining the National organization, which also gives you a local affiliation. This means that, as a member, you're entitled to discounts on any events that we offer them. Now, we don't have an option for a local-only membership. You're either a national/local member or you're not.

Everyone has the option to purchase a subscription to this newsletter for the $15 rate. If you're strictly a subscriber, discounts at dances do not apply.

And, by the way, our monthly dances offer lessons at an additional $2 charge for both members and non-members alike. Considering most group classes are $10-15, we think this is a bargain!

Cruisin' with YMCA & USABDA

Northtown YMCA celebrated its Grand Opening on Saturday, July 27, by hosting a "Cruise Ship Party," and invited USABDA on board! USABDA entertained the 200+ crowd while they toured the new facility and danced just if they were on a cruise. The site was decked out with the best in nautical regalia and because there was no official emcee, it was like attending a mini-USABDA dance. Hats off to the following for participating: Karen Kettler (for organizing and introducing our group), Carol & Gary Stroick, Lisa Hamilton & John Woodcock, Donna Buchholtz & Wally Wilsey, Rita Stoner, Mary Jean Lundeen & Jim Aubrecht, Noel Blair & C.R. Barragan, and Bonita Bartholomew & Mark Vollmer, as well as Joyce Thompson & Pete Maki for providing tunes for all. Thanks also to Wade Warford in his efforts to contact potential dancers. YMCA donated $250; many thanks to Vicki Koeplin and YMCA for this generous contribution and allowing us to partake in the festivities!
