Message From The Chapter President

We danced to a wide variety of music with DJ's Gail & Alan during our February 2nd dance. Ed and Louise Hanlon taught a silver double amalgamation. Some bitter sweet news to our members as we announce Brittany Coy will be leaving us as our dance instructor. She has been offered an opportunity to advance her career in St. Simon Island Georgia. She said she will be coming back here occasionally. We wish her the best in her endeavors. We are thrilled to announce Ed and Louise Hanlon have decided to take Brittany's place as dance instructors here at the Armenian-American Hall on Baseline Road Ocala. They will be teaching the night of our Tuesday dances, (1st & 3rd Tuesday of each month) so students don't have to make a trip only for the lesson. Beginners' lesson will begin March 1st at 6:00pm with our regularly scheduled USA Dance beginning at 7:00pm. Our new membership drive incentive continues through the month of March for new members joining our Ocala Chapter USA Dance. The annual social membership fee is normally $35 but will be offered at $25. In addition, newcomers can sign up for the "Beginners" dance lessons for $25 for 4 lessons and receive 4 free entries to the Tuesday's dances as a bonus. The Ocala dance lessons by Trish Sands will continue as advertised in the newsletter. The same incentive offer applies to those wanting to become members of our Ocala Chapter USA Dance and wishing to take lessons from her in the Ocala area. Many came out dressed in their red outfits for the "Lady-in- Red" Valentines dance with DJ's Marty & Liz on February 16th. Marty and Liz always decorate their table and dress themselves in theme for the occasion. Dorothy added her touch to the table decorations as well as the food display. Marty and Liz provided the dance lesson showing us the "Sway" as they moved effortlessly throughout the floor. They graciously offered their services for the lesson to our organization at no charge. Thank you both. The parking area can be quite dark so I would like to thank some of the attendees who offered to escort some of the ladies to their cars.

The Dance Spree weekend is coming up quickly and is scheduled for April 29th and 30th at the Gold Star Ballroom in Daytona Florida. We were well represented at last year's event and hope to have more participate in this years event. There will be plenty of free dance workshops on Saturday by a variety of professional dance instructors. Saturday evenings schedule offers a Dinner/Dance along with some showcase performances followed by open dancing. Let me know if you are interested in going.
