President's Message

Well, the Daytona USA Dance Spree weekend held on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of May was a great event. Starting Friday Rudy and I arrived at the hotel in the afternoon and shortly afterwards we headed to the Gold Star Ballroom where the event was held. It's such a beautiful venue with a fabulous floating wood dance floor. The Daytona Chapter officers welcomed us along with other Florida and several other state chapters throughout the country. I'm proud to say of the 14 chapters in attendance, our Ocala chapter had the second most members attending and that is second only behind the Daytona chapter. In addition to the Friday dinner/dance there was a Jack and Jill dance contest and a chapter parade where each chapter paraded around the dance floor displaying their banners. They also had some dance showcases.

On Saturday I attended meetings throughout the day while Rudy and the other members of our chapter took advantage of all the dance lessons taught by a variety of professional dance instructors. The evening began with a dinner and continued with open dancing and a few showcases. We had a great time! I do want to thank those who made the trip in support for our chapter. Everyone who attended told me they had a great time. I hope we can get even more of our members to join us next year for the event.

On Sunday the 3rd there was an (optional) 1st Annual GOLD STAR Mini Match featuring Amateur, Pro- Am, and all levels and dance styles. Our own chapter members Dawn Randall and D. Hensel competed in the event and I'm proud to say they both won trophies and returned home as winners. There were 21 studios represented and over 400 entries. Dawn entered in 6 dances and scored "Superior" in all 6. Dee entered in 10 dances and scored "Superior" in all 10. Congratulations to both of you for your wins and some beautiful performances. You can be very proud of your accomplishments.

Our May 5th Cinco de Mayo dance with DJ's Gail & Alan had many dressed in colorful outfits for the occasion and looked great while dancing to the music out on the dance floor. Marty and Liz offered to give the dance lesson after Bill Odom was unable to as he was recuperating from a recent shoulder surgery. They taught the "Sway" which can be danced to slow music. Good job and thanks for offering your services Marty and Liz. Glad to hear Bill Odom is back and fully recovered.

The May 19th Memorial Dance and Ice Cream social had Rudy along with Dottie Hefferon scrambling to dish out the ice cream and toppings as we had several board members unable to attend. Thanks to Norma Wayland and Norma Perkins for working the entry table. Also, "thank you" to Joy Schimborski and her son Harold for attending all our dances and taking pictures for the newsletter. All worked out fine and everyone seemed to enjoy the cool treat on such a hot day. DJ's Marty & Liz did a great job with the music while Ed & Louise Hanlon showed the crowd a new Night Club two step amalgamation. Come join us at the next dance for lots of fun, exercise, and to socialize. See you out there on the dance floor.

Pat
