President's Message

Our April 7th dance with DJ Charles Cook had him also giving the dance lesson with an interesting amalgamation on the east coast swing. Good music kept dancers on the dance floor throughout the night.

A "thank you" is in store for all the members and guests who bring in hors d'oeuvre and the many goodies for everyone to enjoy at no additional cost. Good music, good seating, good eating, good friends, good time, good venue and good dancing...it's ALL good! We thank all our members and guests for you loyal support. Many people travel over 40 miles to attend our dance and we greatly appreciate it.

The April 21st dance started out with Ed and Louise Hanlon teaching part II of the Samba. Everyone liked this lesson and stayed on the floor; there were no "drop-outs" Everyone caught on quickly and later practiced their moves during the evening.

Marty and Liz always give us good music. Thank you Liz for your generosity after winning the 50/50 drawing and giving your winnings back to the chapter. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. We've had several others who have done that in the past. I don't recall all their names but I want to thank you as well.

Our previously scheduled Ocala First Friday Art Walk on Friday May 1st was to have been a demonstration at the Downtown Ocala Square and showcasing dancers from our Ocala Chapter USA Dance organization. Unfortunately, there was a scheduling problem within the Ocala Performing Artists Registration process and the last of the Friday Art Walk until September. Their offices were very cooperative and we were told we would get our chance to perform in the first September event. This is a good outdoor venue to have people see what the USA Dance organization is all about and to stir interest in our chapter and become members while at the same time exercising physically, mentally and having fun socially. At any rate, perhaps we'll have some of the members who were planning to go to Ocala change their plans and show up in Daytona for the Dance Spree weekend. If you've never been to the Dance Spree Weekend, you'll find some excellent dance lessons from many instructors, an evening Dinner and Dancing on a beautiful floating wooden floor the cost is very reasonable and the hotel room rate is a bargain when you mention the Dance Spree Weekend. It's a fun filled weekend! Check it out on the website shown in the April newsletter.

Although I'll be attending the Presidents meeting throughout the day on Saturday I will see you later (on the dance floor). All the chapters there will be carrying their chapter banners in a short parade. Hope you can make it to support the Ocala chapter USA Dance. If not, I'll see you on the dance floor!

Pat
