President's Corner

Springtime in the RVA has to be one of the best seasons ANYwhere – dogwoods and azaleas, lilies and irises, hydrangeas and geraniums all in bloom and adding color to almost every yard and garden. It just doesn't get much better than that. I'm guessing that many of our dancers have been working in their yards, enjoying the process and the results, and celebrating Spring – even on our dance nights. April was the lowest total attendance we've had at our two dances in years and 56 fewer than we had in April last year. We miss you when you aren't there and wonder what we can do to make our events more appealing. The Board is concerned about this declining attendance and is working on a new survey to get your feedback and ideas. We plan to get that out to you in the next two weeks and hope that you will take a few minutes to complete it and let your voice be heard. The survey responses will be anonymous, but if you would like to address any specific concerns or share ideas, please feel free to speak to me or to any Board member. Their contact info is on page 5 of this newsletter.

April's dances were fun, beginning with our 1st Saturday dance at Rigby's Jig with Brian Westerlund of Off and Dancing dance studio as our instructor and deejay. Brian taught a beautiful Night Club 2-Step pattern and brought another great playlist for the evening. As always, the snacks provided by Karen's Krew were delicious - and plentiful. This month we return to the Jig on May 4. Alan Hedgpeth of A Step Above in Virginia Beach will be our guest instructor and DJ and will be teaching an Advanced Beginner-/Intermediate-level Foxtrot class beginning at 7:00 PM. Alan has been voted the Virginia Teacher of the Year on several occasions and always brings us fresh, exciting, and doable patterns. The FT is one of the most popular standard ballroom dances we do and this is your chance to add a new move or two to your skill set. Alan also deejays at dances up and down the Eastern Seaboard and his music is always current and danceable. In addition, we will host the Rigby's Jig Formation Team for two exciting new routines that they've prepared for our entertainment.

The Deep Run dance in April featured a Bachata lesson with Angel Rodriguez, the Salsa Guy. The feedback on this lesson was off the charts with all positive comments. Angel had the 40+ students looking like seasoned Bachata dancers! He's returning this month on May 18 to complete his two-part training on this exciting dance that can be done to almost ANY kind of music. Come join us for the lesson and see how much you will learn in less than an hour - I guarantee you that you will pick up something new! And come early for our annual Potluck Supper to kick off the evening. The doors at Deep Run will open at 6:00 PM and we will eat at 6:15. No need to sign up – just bring a favorite dish to share. This will be our only potluck this year so don't miss the chance to enjoy some of the finest cooking in town. The tables will be cleared in time for the lesson at 7. Bill Irwin will provide music for dining AND dancing!

Another arbiter of good weather is the return of live music to local malls and other venues like Independence Golf Course. It begins on May 3 at Westchester Commons with Ron Moody and the Centaurs in a free concert from 5:30-8:30 PM. One of the great things about ballroom is that it is so easy to find a dance for almost any kind of music and our group is so large that, no matter where you go, there always seem to be dancers you know in the crowd and dancing on the lawn. We want to encourage you to spread the joy of dance around town – and when you are asked where you learned to dance like that, tell them about your favorite studio and about OUR dances.

And finally, we want to congratulate our two youngest members, Emmett Hallstrom and Ariana Hubik, who placed second in their division at USA Dance Nationals in Orem, UT in April and send congrats to the National Champion UVA basketball team for their amazing performance in the Big Dance.

See you on the dance floor! - Phil

Tri-Cities Newsletter

By Sharon Dunn

You often hear some of our dancers say, "who has more fun than us", and that is exactly how we felt on Saturday night, April 13, at our Tri-Cities dance.

We had a very engaging, and technique-driven East Coast Swing class taught by Steve Kirvan, from 7 Cities Ballroom in Williamsburg, VA. When you are in a class with Steve, you always know that no matter how basic the class is, you will leave with a move you have never danced before! He is a fun and knowledgeable instructor, and we hope to have him back again at the Tri-Cities Chapter soon.

We also had the opportunity to see Brian Westerlund, Special Events Coordinator and Michelle Hacker, Secretary (both on the Board of Directors for Tri-Cities Chapter 6060) showcase two of their dances for their upcoming competitions at the Mid Atlantic Dance Classic in Dulles. They danced a beautiful Country Two Step and a Cha Cha dance. We are cheering them on and wishing them the best in their competitions!

Please plan to join us on May 11, 2019 for a Hustle class with David Headly.

The DJ for the evening will be Jerry Scaglione.

We look forward to seeing you on the dance floor!
