President's Corner

Welcome to Indian Summer in the RVA! It's been a crazy weather year and it seems only fitting that we have temps in the upper 80's at the end of October. Hopefully, it will continue to be nice for weeks to come – we don't want to miss any dances due to snow! We had a couple of good ones last month.

Our 1st Saturday Dance kicked off the month with our Chapter's favorite dance – the Waltz. John Holcomb finished his series of lessons with a very enthusiastic crowd, teaching a new pattern that I have been seeing at every dance since. He also brought a great new playlist, and everyone had fun dancing the night away. This month we welcome back Eleanor Robertson, owner of Rigby's Jig, as our instructor and deejay. She will be teaching the first of two Bolero lessons. Eleanor is a wonderful teacher and always has new patterns to share. The Bolero is a sensual and romantic dance and is one of her favorites to teach. She has performed many exhibitions for us over the years and her Bolero routines are always a favorite. Come join us on November 2 and you will see why. Eleanor also knows her ballroom dance music and will be bringing a great set for our dancing pleasure. Karen's Krew will be on hand with another wonderful array of delicious delectables to delight your discriminating palette and, as a bonus, the Rigby's Jig Formation Dance Team will be performing two new routines - a special treat for us.

Speaking of special treats – 86 of us were entertained at the October Deep Run dance by an exhibition by our own Linda Bourgeois and her professional partner and coach, Riccardo Paccini. They performed three lovely numbers from the repertoire that they have been sharing at comps up and down the East Coast for the past year. Linda looked wonderful in her gowns and she sparkled in front of our group and many of her friends and family members who came out to see her dance. For most of us, it was the first time we have seen her perform and it was obvious to all that she has worked hard to achieve her dream of dance. She also brought some special homemade treats to share to supplement those provided by Connie's Crew so it was a win-win situation for us! The evening started with the second of two Viennese Waltz lessons by David Headly. This is certainly one of the most challenging and intimidating ballroom dances to learn and David is the best I have seen at breaking it down into manageable pieces. The class was excellent, and the results were fun to see. This month we are bringing back Doug McRae for a Country Two-Step lesson at our 3rd Saturday Dance on November 16. Yes – we know the 2-Step is not technically a “ballroom” dance. But it IS a fun dance to do and the music is very popular, so we usually play one or two during our dances. Come learn some basics and you may find you enjoy it as well! This is the only time we will be offering it as a class this year. DJ Bill Irwin returns with another fun mix of ballroom music and Connie's Crew will provide refreshments. This will be our celebration of Veteran's Day and we will recognize our military veterans at intermission. Hope you will be there, too!

Our Holiday Formal is all set for December 21 at Deep Run. We are pleased that the Tri-Cities Chapter will be co-hosting this event with us and we look forward to seeing many of their members that evening. This is our one “dressy” dance of the year and we encourage you to dress up in true holiday style. Black tie is optional. This dance is $10 per person with no free admissions so if your birthday falls in December, you need to attend the 1st Saturday Dance as your free dance.

The Tidewater Chapter's NY's Eve Gala at the Portsmouth Renaissance is fast approaching, too. The Early Bird discount runs through October 31 and we have tables reserved for our group. It's always a beautiful and fun event, whether you attend just the formal dinner dances or the entire 4-day weekend of workshops and dances. Check out their ad inside this newsletter and their website for details; then call Joyce Thompson at (804) 520-7001 if you would like to sit with our group that evening.

See you on the dance floor! - Phil

Tri-Cities Newsletter

By Sharon Dunn

The Tri-Cities Members and guests really grasped the steps of the Country 2-Step lesson taught by Phyllis Harris AND there was unbelievable enthusiasm while dancing in pajamas at our October dance. Phyllis is an incredible teacher, and we feel very privileged to have her teach for us at Tri-Cities. It was also nice to have Brian Westerlund dancing with us and giving us all some great tips on execution of the steps taught.

Thanks to all of you who participated by wearing their crazy pajamas, and to those that did not wear pajamas - but came anyway. Everyone who came had a great time! Who knew dancing in pajamas could be so much fun?

We are also sending a big thank you shout out to Jerry Scaglione for organizing the snowball dance and playing fabulous tunes all night. No one wanted to go home and I think we probably could have stayed and danced all night. If we decide to have another pajama dance, next time we should bring sleeping bags!

Our chapter is also looking forward to having Doug and Maggie McRae teach a Bachata class on November 9; Randy Goodfellow will be the DJ for the evening. In addition, we are hosting a potluck dinner at this dance, so bring your appetite and your favorite dish.

**Reminder – The Tri-Cities Chapter will celebrate the holiday dance together again this year with the Richmond Chapter on December 21 at Deep Run, with music by Mike Recant. Admission is $10.00 at the door, and it is black tie optional. We will not be having our normal dance on December 14. Please mark your calendars and come dance with both the Richmond and Tri-Cities Chapters.

Location: Deep Run Recreational Center, 9900 Ridgefield Parkway, Henrico, VA 23238. Time: 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm.

On a more serious note, we are still seeking Board Members for the Board of Directors beginning in January 2020. Please let one of the Board Members know if you are interested or would like more information.

Drinkers Don't Dance and Dancers Don't Drink

Social dance clubs all across America have literally tens of thousands of members who frequent bars and lounges. Most every dance club has that special night out at a lounge or bar. In most cases the lounge or bar provides the dance music, either a juke box, a live band or a Deejay. The bar or lounge usually pays for those providing the music. The lounge or bar pays for these expenses almost solely from the sale of drinks and beverages. Unfortunately, many dancers will only drink water or will nurse a beer or highball for the entire evening.

We've all heard the expression that "Drinkers don't dance and dancers don't drink". Many bars and lounges have been lost to the dance community for this reason alone. As ASCAP and BMI continue their contacts with bars and lounges, many owners will have no recourse but to start charging a cover, raise the drink prices, start charging for bottled water, require that the dance clubs provide and pay for their own deejays, etc. Many owners may even begin requiring that the dance clubs pay their share of licensing for the night (s) that they dance at the facility. After all, if the dance club was not at the bar or lounge on their special night, then the bar would probably not be presenting copyrighted music but instead may choose to be closed on that night. In order to remain open and continue to provide a dance venue, the owners may have to resort to "if you want to play, you've got to pay". In 1998, the dance community in Jacksonville, FL remedied the problem of losing bars and lounges and securing music copyright licenses by banding together to open their very own dance establishment, Club Savoy. When, where and how this was accomplished is for another post.
