

Elegance can be found in many places, but it permeated the dance floor at the Lee Club on March 14, 2015, at the "Dance by the Light of the Moon" dance at Fort Lee.

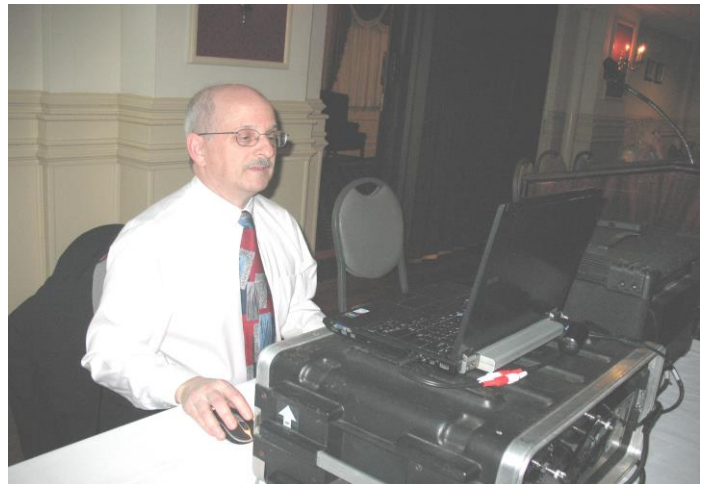

The dancers were beautiful as they swept the floor with their beautiful gowns and the handsome men with their perfectly executed dance steps. Couples swayed and sashayed across the fabulous dance floor dancing the night away.

We all enjoyed a fabulous performance of a "Samba into a Tango" routine with changing partners performed by Gwendolyn Glenn's Dance in Class Performance Team. We really appreciate Gwen and her dance team's continued support with the Tri-Cities Chapter, it is always a pleasure to see their performances.

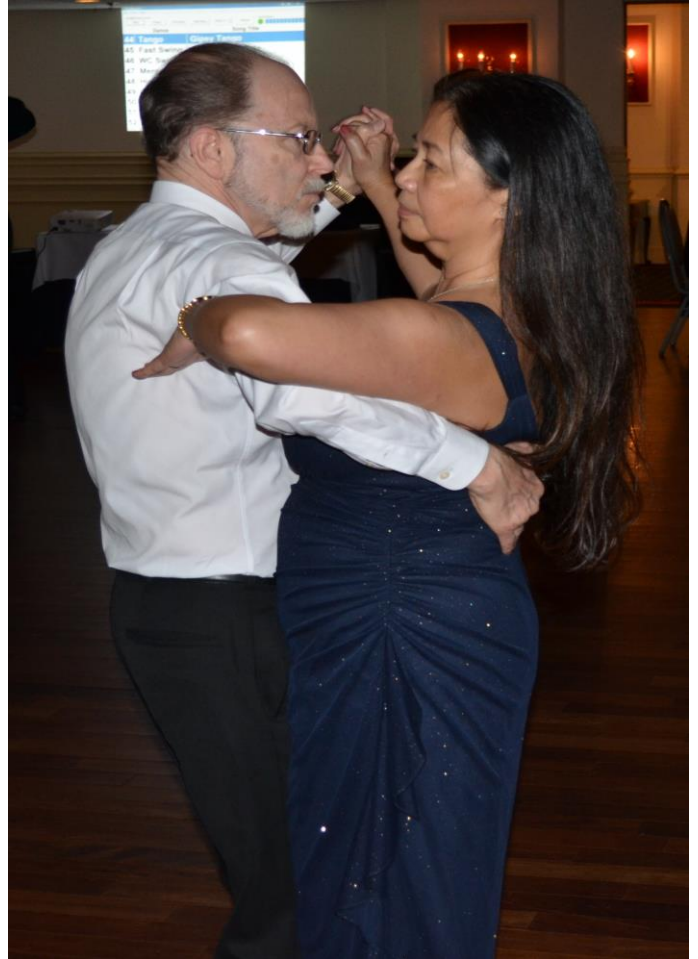

DJ, Mike Recant, did a wonderful job of integrating old into new songs with a classy selection of music. No one was shy about getting on the dance floor! A big thanks to Mike for a job well done.

Keep Scrolling, lots more pictures!!!

The Tri-Cities Chapter had the privilege of dancing at the Ivy Ridge Assisted Living Center on March 21, 2015. We had a great time with some very interactive residents. It is a rewarding experience when we can share dancing with these wonderful people.

A huge thank-you to these dancers who volunteered their time on a Saturday afternoon: Tim and Sharon Dunn, Poppy and Matthew Nio, Harry Salvat, Marva Farrington, John Brooks, Singli Garcia, Ruth and Bill Gandel.
