

This is the Tri-Cities Chapter's 10th year of hosting a special dance at The Lee Club, and this is your opportunity to dance in the most elegant ballroom in Central Virginia. We are encouraging you to make your reservations for the “Dance by the Light of the Moon,” dance at Fort Lee on March 14, 2015. This is always a magnificent event with a fabulous dance floor and we look forward to all of you joining us. Please see the Reservation form that follows to make your reservation online or by using the mail-in reservation form.

The Bolero Dance is by far the most regal dance among all of the Latin American styles. Originally, a Spanish dance but modified in Cuba, the Bolero is a slow, smooth and powerful romantic dance. It is a high breed dance with Ballroom lines and techniques, mixed with sensuous and sexy Latin American movements. It can be likened to a slower, dreamier version of Rumba.

Last month we had our first of two Bolero Lessons with Phyllis Harris. Since our February Tri-Cities Chapter Dance falls on Valentine's Day, Saturday, February 14, you will have a wonderful opportunity to dance and share some of these romantic moves in our second Bolero class. If you do not have a significant other, come anyway, we have dance hosts and you can mingle and meet new people.

Phyllis Harris teaches Bolero
