

Have you ever wondered why people that dance Salsa are always smiling? They are smiling because they are having so much fun! It's one of those dances that cause pure exhilaration!

The dance floor was packed with grinning faces at our October dance. Cliff Knittel helped all the folks with two left feet find their balance and coordination while learning some new Salsa moves. You will have another opportunity to test your dance skills for a second Salsa class with Cliff on November 14, 2015. Don't be shy, come join us; Cliff will have you dancing the Salsa like a pro in no time!

At our November 14 dance, we will be honoring our military personnel for their service. The Colonial Heights Police Department has a color guard that will be rendering military honors at 7:30 pm. We hope all of our military personnel will attend as we show respect to our Nation and those who have served.

We would like to send a special thanks Bill and Ruth Gandel for donating their time to dance and share their love of dancing while representing the Tri-Cities Chapter at the Interfaith Adult Daycare Center, which is at the Covenant Presbyterian church on the outskirts of Petersburg. It was a lovely afternoon and the residents were grateful for the entertainment.

Here are the upcoming dances for your planning purposes:

NOVEMBER 14, 2015	Cliff Knittel- Salsa	Jerry Scaglione
DECEMBER 12, 2015	Holiday Dance Semi-Formal No lesson	Randy Goodfellow
