

Happy Easter

It was a cold, cold night for our St. Patrick's Day dance, but the dancers braved the low temperature and came to dance to a lot of good music by Jerry Scaglione. We didn't dance the Irish Jig, but Amy Hontos got us dancing the Cha Cha. She taught the basic steps and included the more advanced Butterfly step. Everyone seemed to catch on pretty quickly and had fun dancing it after the lesson was over.

Later in the evening Amy and Tri-Cities member Linda Harper entertained us with a “fun” Jive routine to Meghan Trainor’s “Dear Future Husband”. It was fun to watch them dance to that lively music in their “wedding” costumes.

Phyllis Harris will be teaching Waltz at our April 8th dance. We are looking forward to having Phyllis back. She is an excellent instructor and has a wealth of knowledge to share. Doug McRae will be playing the music. Doug does a fine job, and we always look forward to dancing to his playlist.

Tri-Cities member Bill Gandel taught the basic steps in Waltz, Foxtrot and East Coast Swing to an enthusiastic group at the Prince George Parks and Recreation Department in March. Although this was not sponsored by USA Dance, he did promote the organization and gave out literature about the Tri-Cities Chapter and the National organization. Bill has been teaching a beginner class at the Parks and Recreation Department for the past 11 years.

See you on April 8th, and hopefully, Spring will have arrived for sure.
